

MILLIONAIRE'S WIFE TRUE TO BURGLAR

Mrs. Romadka Won't Tell on "Ralph Smith"—Gave Her Diamonds.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—Mrs. Evelyn Romadka, wife of Charles J. Romadka, millionaire of Milwaukee, self-confessed burglar and associate of a negro ex-convict, has been released in $9,000 bail here. With her attorney and brother-in-law, she left for Milwaukee to return for trial next Tuesday.

In spite of the startling confession of the woman that she alone was the burglar who entered the homes of Chicagoans and stole jewels, the police are convinced that Mrs. Romadka has told only half the truth. They believe that another man, besides the negro, Albert Jones, was implicated with her. The man suspected is "Ralph Smith," who, Mrs. Romadka, at the time of her arrest, said gave her certain stolen diamonds.

Jones has confessed that "Smith" is no mythical character. When Mrs. Romadka was confronted with this confession, she tossed her head haughtily and said:

"Yes, there is a Ralph Smith. He is a friend of mine. He is a man to do with these burglaries and I will not betray his identity."

Detectives are searching for "Smith." They believe that he will be able to throw light on the mystery of Mrs. Romadka's motive for plunging into the underworld of Chicago when she had a rich husband and all comforts of life.

Chop Suey Trust A-Comin' Next; Jersey Charter

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—Modern financial methods have penetrated even into the mysterious Mongolian mixture market. A monopoly of the chop suey market that will control the larger portion of the supply of New York, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, and other Eastern cities is about to be organized under the laws of New Jersey. Henry Lee, of the Pekin Restaurant Company, of Philadelphia, is the promoter of the Chop Suey Trust. He declares that while it is not the intention to raise the price of the delicacy, its manufacture and sale will be regulated.

The new trust will be known as the Oriental Chop Suey Company, and it is being planned to acquire restaurants in all the larger Eastern cities to sell the company's output. The capital stock will be $100,000.

CANNON SCORES FIRST; GETS TWO DELEGATES

OWOSSO, Mich., Oct. 11.—The Presidential candidacy of Speaker Joseph Cannon was endorsed after a struggle, and two delegates to the national Republican convention were named by a convention of the Eighth Congressional district held here yesterday.

This, the first convention to select national delegates, was a lively affair. It revealed the bitterness of the Michigan beet sugar interests to the candidacy of Secretary Taft.

THOUGHT HUSBAND DYING; FALLS DEAD AT BEDSIDE

BERLIN, Oct. 11.—Imperial Adjt. Gen. Adolf von Buelow, who has been ridden for some time suffering from asthma, had a severe attack and his attendants called the general's wife.

Seeing him apparently suffocating and unconscious she shrieked:

"The general is dying! So am I!"

As she uttered the last words she fell dead at her husband's bedside.

The general recovered consciousness later, but he is in such a critical condition that he has not been informed of his wife's death.

ROBBED OF PURSE AND $1.50

Because she did not keep a tight clutch on her pocketbook, which contained $1.50 in real money, Miss Ethel E. Stickley, of Woodstock, Va., had to tell the police she had the purse stolen from her as she sat on the front seat of a New York motor car yesterday.

When the theft occurred three men were sitting near her.

Mrs. Cassie Chadwick Dead; Notorious Swindler Goes to Grave With Lips Sealed

MRS. CASSIE CHADWICK,
Who Astounded the World by Her Smooth Financial Operations, From a Photograph Taken in the Heyday of Her Career.

Witch of Finance Ends Life All Alogie in Ohio Pen.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 11.—Cassie Chadwick, former high priestess of frenzied finance and the most stupendous woman swindler in the history of the world, died in the pen here at 10:15 last night with these words on her lips:

"I am glad that the end is here."

Stricken with heart disease and several complications, half blind, wholly deaf, deserted by all her family but her son and with no prospect but poverty at the end of five odd years in prison, Mrs. Chadwick welcomed death.

Yet if there were any about her who hoped that in the knowledge of her approaching dissolution she would confess her guilt of $10,000,000 thefts and debts, she would not have done so.

Declaration that Andrew Carnegie was her father and the indorser of her spurious notes, they were destined to disappointment.

Mrs. Chadwick passed away with the smile that she has known since she went to prison in 1902—and she passed away with the mystery of her life still unexplained.

The woman died all alone in the woman's ward, with none but the nurse, the warden, and the prison physician near her. Her son, Emil Hoover, who had been summoned from Cleveland, failed to arrive and of all the men and women who used to throng her court, in the days that her notes "rained at par," not one appeared in response to the summons to her deathbed.

APPEAL IN PRAYERS FOR WOMAN'S SANITY

Five Thousand Bow Heads for Mother and Daughter.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—Asking that one woman might be saved from insanity and another from death by a broken heart, 5,000 persons followed the Rev. R. A. Torrey in prayer last night. A striking scene was witnessed as all in the huge canvas inclosure at Chestnut and North Clark streets rose to their feet.

The prayers for divine intervention were sought in response to a written request, pressed into Dr. Torrey's hand at the beginning of the night meeting. The note which was read before the prayers were asked for read:

"Dear Sir: Please pray for a sister. She is at the point of losing her mind, as she thinks she cannot be saved. Please ask your praying brothers to pray for her. Her father will die of a broken heart if she doesn't get saved."

"A SISTER."

MISS FROHMAN POSTS $3,000 FOR CHAUFFEUR

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—In following up the crusade against speeders on the upper West Side Sergeant Casey and his men got ten prisoners into the West Sixty-eighth street station.

The jerk looked like a pawn broker's by the time that Casey and his men had half finished.

Mrs. Waldron Williams, who said she lived at 524 West End avenue, put up a diamond and sapphire ring worth $700 for her chauffeur.

Miss Margaret Frohman, daughter of Daniel Frohman, left a pearl which she said was worth more than $3,000 as security for her chauffeur, George DeFane. The machine and the chauffeur were caught in front of the Frohman home, at 159 West Seventy-ninth street.

THREE DEAD AND MANY HURT BY FALLING OF DERRICK

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Oct. 11.—Three men were killed and several others seriously hurt, two of them fatally, by the falling of a derrick on the new New York, Chicago, and St. Louis Railway company's bridge over the Cuyahoga river.

The dead are F. T. Beall, of Connecticut, Ohio, trainman; J. S. Bates, of Cleveland, and Albert Furrer, Cleveland.

STREETS INSPECTED.

The District Commissioners are doing a long line of traveling these days. Already they have personally inspected the northeast, southeast, and southwest sections of the city, so as to make up their estimate to Congress in the most intelligent shape possible. Within the next few days they will inspect the northwest section. It now seems probable that they will ask a large amount for street improvements in all sections of the city.

Do Your Meals Fit?

Do You Feel Snug and Comfortable Around Your Waist Line After a Hearty Meal?

Did your last meal taste deliciously good to you, and did you eat all you wanted? Could you have patied your rotundity in sleep and proud of your appetite and of your good strong stomach? Do you feel rosy now because your last meal gave you no inconvenience whatever? If not, you have dyspepsia in some form, and probably never realized it.

If you have the least trouble in your stomach after eating, no matter how little or how much you eat, there is trouble brewing and you must correct it at once.

Most all stomach troubles come from poor, weak, scanty gastric juice, that precious liquid which ought to turn your food into rich, red blood.

If you have nausea, your gastric juice is weak. If you have sour risings or belchings, your food is fermenting; your gastric juice is weak. If you have loss of appetite, your gastric juice is weak. If you have a bloated feeling of aversion to food, your gastric juice is weak.

You need something in your stomach to supply the gastric juice which is scanty, and to give power to the weak gastric juice. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do this very thing.

Now think—one grain of one of the ingredients of these wonderful little tablets digests 3,000 grains of food. They are several times more powerful than the gastric juice in a good, strong, powerful stomach. They actually digest your food for you. Besides, they increase the flow of gastric juice, just what you need to get all the good possible out of everything you eat. You will never have that "lump of lead" in your stomach nor any other stomach trouble after taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Then everything you eat will be digested. It will give you strength, vim, energy, and a rosy disposition. You'll feel good all over.

Send us your name and address today and we will at once send you a small sample package free. Address: F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.
